St. Stephen's & West Kirk Magazine
Winter 2026/27

In the last magazine and previous magazines I have made comment regards the closure of churches here in Broughty Ferry all as part of the Mission Plan written some years ago and recently updated.

In the spring magazine I included an article which highlighted the possibility of St.Stephens and West closing as early as December 2027 and use the magazine to record some historical information about our church. Some of you have come forward with photographs and stories and I thank those who have contributed.

I have also been looking at the magazines going back nearly 60 years for stories and items of interest which I have collated and included in this magazine titled 'ALL OUR YESTERDAYS'

I hope this is of interest to all members and hopefully I will continue with some more items under the same banner in the spring edition.

I am still on the lookout for photographs, stories etc. from members that could be included in the next edition.

SUMMER GARDEN PARTY

Our sincere thanks go to Ailsa and Graeme Redford for organising and hosting another wonderful garden party at their house near Cortachy. The weather on the 12th.July was not as hot as last year but we still managed to sit outside and admire the view. Plus taste some wonderful home baking!

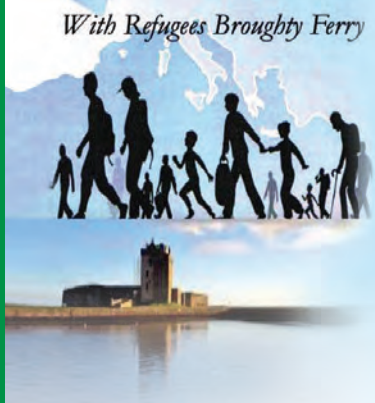

Again the event was well supported.

Editor - My apologies for not posting any photographs but I seemed to have inadvertently deleted them from my phone.

Visit from Wurzburg Pops Orchestra

On the 31st.August we welcomed to our church the Dundee – Wurzburg Twinning Association who organised performances by the talented orchestra.
The orchestra consisted of 40 ambitious amateur musicians with their music from films, musicals and pop classics. A very large enthusiastic audience welcomed them to our church and the concert was a great success.
The orchestra were supported by the Tayside Young Fiddlers Youth Music Group made up of young musicians from 12 to 18 years of age playing traditional Scottish Music. They are always on the lookout for new members and rehearse every Tuesday evening in Broughty Ferry.
A most enjoyable concert.

ALL OUR YESTERDAY

Looking back at the magazines of our church in the 1960's was quite interesting.

This was when only typewriters were available and the long arduous job of typing, without any mistakes, the contents of the magazine. There were no fancy pictures at that time and it was purely words.

The typing was carried out on a special ink paper and then transferred to a roller and I do remember printing flyers etc.in the 60's using this type of machine.If you were lucky it was driven electrically and if not you had to keep turning the handle for required number of copies. Very labour intensive and in some cases very messy as you had to have enough ink on the roller! Magazines were distributed monthly and an editorial committee managed the content and distribution. In 1963 membership of the church was in the order of 1200 so a lot of printing, putting together of the magazine and distribution.

Intially, the magazines were posted out but with the increase cost for postage, in February 1964 it was decided that distributors be requested to volunteer for taking the magazine out to the members of the church.

The magazine had contributions from the organisations of the church and they included:

Womans Guild, Choir, Badminton Clubs (St. Stephens Club and also the West Club), Carpet Bowling, Boys Brigade, Life Boys, Girl Guides, Brownies and the Sunday School.

Organisations like the 19th.Boys Brigade company were started in or around 1963 and met initially in the West Church hall. The two photographs show the first photograph of the company when it was formed in or about 1960 and the second photograph was taken in 1963 both photographs at the West Church hall.

With churches presently being sold it was interesting to note that the sale of the West Church and Manse was completed in November 1963. They were sold for £2500 which was quite a bargain as the property market at that time was not good.

As mentioned earlier the magazine was put together by the editorial committee and the minister was 'invited' by the editor on odd occasions to submit an article. The first was in December 1963 and after that there were a few articles from the minister but not every month. The editorial committee appeared to be quite powerful and some of the articles when reading them would raise a few eyebrows in todays climate.

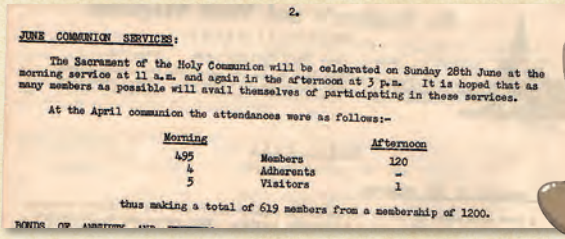

Occasionally there were quotes included with the magazine, placed at the very end on the last page.

This only happened in a few magazines and the quote below, used in a 1964 magazine, brought a smile to my face.

"It is unfortunate, considering that enthusiasm moves the world, that so few enthusiasts can be trusted to speak the truth."

The 1960's were a boom time for the church here at St.Stephens and West and with the union in 1963 the congregation numbers were very healthy.

Details of the numbers attending communion in June 1964 are shown in this extract from the magazine. Serving so many people required well organised session.

JUNE COMMUNION SERVICES:

The Sacrament of the Holy Communion will be celebrated on Sunday 28th June at the morning service at 11 a.m. and again in the afternoon at 3 p.m. It is hoped that as many members as possible will avail themselves of participating in these services.

At the April communion the attendances were as follows:-

Morning		Afternoon
495	Members	120
4	Adherents	-
5	Visitors	1

thus making a total of 619 members from a membership of 1200.

OCTOBER, 1966.

ORDINATION and ADMISSION OF ELDERS:

The Kirk Session has decided to increase its numbers and the following will be ordained or admitted to membership of our Session on Sunday, 9th October at the Morning Service:-

Mr. Harold N. Adams,	41 Panmure Street
Mr. Henry Brough,	85 Seafield Road
Mr. Colin Donaldson,	90 Grove Road
Mrs. Lloyd Hayward,	8 Ferndale Drive
Mr. Malcolm Hendry,	92 Dundee Road
Mr. David Imrie,	25 Crombie Terrace
Mr. R.B.S. Lawson,	97 Beach Crescent
Mr. C. A. Rolls,	35 Blake Street
Mr. Sydney Smith,	10 Leven Street
Mr. John Symington,	39 Brook Street

We are fortunate in the calibre of our new Elders and are confident that they will bring new strength to the Session. We hope that our members will aid them in their task both by remembering them in their prayers and by offering them a warm welcome to their homes when they visit their districts. Do ask your Elder in when he calls on you, and enable him to get to know you properly.

For the first time we are appointing a lady to our Session and everyone who knows her will agree that no one could be more fitted for this task than Mrs. Hayward. She is a person of deep Christian conviction who gives herself unstintingly to the service of her Church and her Lord. She is the devoted leader of Junior Bible Class and has the honour of being the Senior Vice-President of Dundee Presbyterial Council. She is in herself a convincing argument for women elders and the Kirk Session is honoured by her joining us.

G. STUART CAMERON.

In June 1965 the General Assembly approved the ordination of women to Eldership and our church appointed their first lady elder in October 1966. The list of elders ordained or admitted at this service are listed below and Mrs. Lloyd Hayward was our first lady elder.

Remember attending first communicants classes? You had to attend these classes before you could join the church and here at St. Stephens and West there was an excellent response from the community to join our church. I show the communicants list for May 1965 and there was a healthy number in the years before and after that date.

This is a very healthy list of new members and to all we offer our sincere good wishes and hope that they will find happiness and fellowship with us.

Organisations in the church were very healthy and for example the Brownies had a waiting list even after starting up another pack. The creche was moved to the YMCA because all the halls were being used by the Sunday School.

The Sunday School was also well attended and recorded in the February 1965 magazine the numbers attending. It was recorded that 174 boys and girls from the age 3 to 15 were attending with 23 teachers, 16 women and 7 men were there to assist. Staggering numbers.

The Sunday School were also involved in funding an orphan in Nigeria for a number of years and continued this for a number of years. Here at St. Stephens and West we have continued that pattern by supporting the work at Meru since 2008.

A CHARMING LITTLE RASCAL

Good news about Adesa Salan, the eight-year-old Nigerian boy who is being treated for leprosy at the expense of our Sunday School. The following letter arrived recently from The British Leprosy Relief Association, who arranged the "adoption" :-

"When Adesa arrived at the settlement at Abeokuta last year he looked like a little old man and spoke to no one for quite a time. Gradually, he became interested in his new surroundings and in a short time was laughing and playing with the other children.

His leprosy is a mild type and he is responding to treatment quite well although he still has numerous patches all over his body.

He is a very charming little rascal, always up to something and almost every week he has to be reminded to fetch water and wood for the woman who cooks for them. The children have school only twice a week at present as there is no proper school, only a Baptist teacher who visits twice a week. Like all the patients, Adesa does community work every morning from 7am to 9am, usually weeding the garden or watering the crops.

He comes from a village near Ijebu not far away but doesn't seem to know much about his relatives and is not keen to visit them at all.

Thank you very much for all the help you are giving to this child who, thanks to your generosity, now has the chance of a healthier future".

Graham Symington.

Sunday School adopted and funded Adesa Salan who was at the Qua Eboe Leprosy Settlement in Nigeria. He was 7 years old when they adopted him and they then adopted Friday James from the same settlement but he ran away.

We have been involved with the fantastic work that has been and continues to be done in Meru. Just in the past 4 weeks the school has taken possession of iPads and a further 38 are on there way as we speak. £2450 has also been transferred to them which will buy 20 desk tops for their school. Photographs of the students with their iPads shows the excitement on their faces. From the 1960's to the present day we at St.Stephens and West have reached out to other parts of the world to help those less fortunate than ourselves.

Achievements at Meru since 2008 along with other supporters and still ongoing:

- Curricular partnership on Global citizenship between Grove Academy and Meru school (secondary for boys)
- Exchange of staff and pupils between schools
- Dundee football strips for the boys (Sorry United supporters!!)
- Funded toilets, handwashing station, classrooms, locker desks and chairs, computing suite, staff room desks for Limbene School – now top of the league in Meru district.
- Former pupil of Limbene, Titus, now a teacher.
- 'Bricks' sold at St.Brides for Limbene.
- Moira Stewart Trust linked to Grove funded 2 classrooms at BMK school Meru.
- St.Stephens kindergarten – for 100 pupils – two storeys built and furnished in partnership with Meru church and St.Stephens and West.
- Yellow school mini bus to pick up kids from the rural area
- 12 orphans looked after by disabled kin supported in schooling
- Funds and beads to support young mothers and an anti FGM programme at Ciford
- Classroom floors cemented at Mwili school
- Classroon furniture and computers
- Kiaritha school – computer suite and class set of computers
- Funds towards construction of school hall at Kiaritha
- Alliance Trust leadership award 2008 for Global citizenship

To finish up this review of information taken from the earlier magazines I show below the collections for June and July 1963. I am sure many of us remember days before decimilation and can easily figure out the conversion to present day money. Ask if you don't know.

Hoping to do another review in the next magazine of our yesterdays which will almost certainly include a story about the spire being hit be lightening. This meant a lot of fundraising and the photograph of these smiling faces at the Rock Garden, before the rain started, was part of the effort to raise funds. More about this next year. Hopefully.

Broughty Churches update

The reduction of churches in Broughty Ferry continues to be taken forward with the sale of St.Lukes now finalised and the new owners carrying out a lot of work to improve the building.

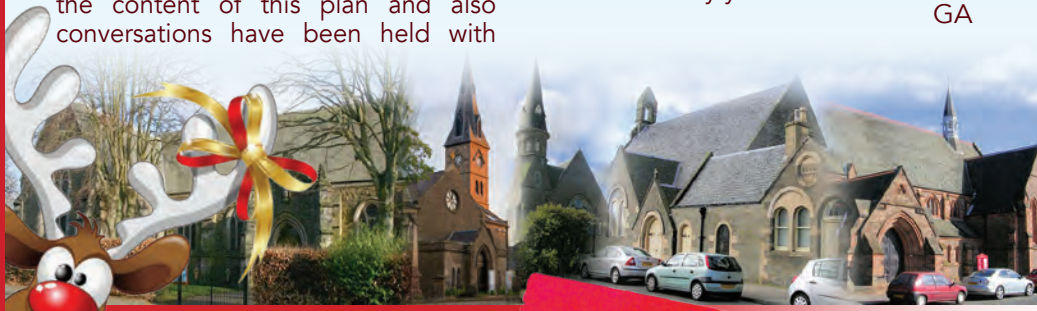

St.James is up for sale with a closing date of the 22nd.October so by the time this magazine is distributed a new owner should be known.

Also since the last magazine was distributed an updated Mission Plan was issued in February 2026 which makes reference to the future of our own church and the integration of St.Stephens and West with a timescale.

Our Board and Session have discussed the content of this plan and also conversations have been held with some of the officebearers at Broughty Ferry Parish Church to get their views and opinions. Included in the plan is the requirement to dispose of the Church and Hall by December 2027 and meetings are planned over the coming months to discuss the way forward.

I am ever hopeful that very soon there will be a discussion that recognises the current situation here at St. Stephens and West. The impact on people, the members of the church and also the community. In the meantime, we continue to enjoy worship in our church and utilise the hall as we have done for many years.

Christmas gifts for children

There will be an opportunity for you to provide Christmas gifts for children of all ages in the local area and this will be at our 10 a.m. service on Sunday 13th. December.

Please do not wrap the gifts as this will be done by the organisers.

Your Verdict

Your verdict on all the ups and downs of the human predicament?

Here we must exercise great caution.

When we pass sentence or make a definitive statement on the affairs of the world and indeed about other people, we not only declare a judgement on human life and living but on ourselves!

When we pass sentence, we expose ourselves, our disposition, our character, whether we are cynical or trustful, captured by despair or prisoners of hope, part of the world's problem or part of its solution.

Here are three verdicts for your consideration: you must decide which one comes closest to how you view the world and other people.

Life is good enough to be true.

That is, life meets and satisfies all our expectations.

It is the stance taken by a cosmic optimist.

The cosmic optimist concludes that from all the evidence, life is good: embrace it robustly.

There's a place for everything and everything has its place. God is in his heaven and all is well with the world!

I have reservations.

Are we sufficiently resilient to cope with the morning after optimism?

How do we fare on discovering the harsh reality that a person may smile and smile broadly but remain as cunning as a fox?

In our pursuit of truth, what if truth does not liberate us?

Is life good enough to be true?

Life is too good to be true.

That is, do not be deceived: lurking beneath the surface is a perverse malevolence.

"As flies to wanton boys are we to the gods. They kill us for their sport."

Do you ever hesitate to say, "The car is running well? Or I haven't had a cold all winter? Or the weather seems settled, let's fire up the BBQ?."

We are almost afraid to make such rash statements, afraid to be happy lest someone or something rains on our parade, dents our cheerfulness, blights our high spirits.

One of my Grannies used to say: "There will be weeping for all our laughter."

Life is too good to be true, don't trust it!

That's the verdict of the disillusioned: don't expect too much and then you will never be disappointed.

Here is my reservation.

Supposing the surface of the world was planted over with concrete blocks, is it not possible that somewhere at some time, a tiny crack may emerge and through that crack a rose may blossom?

Ecclesiastes 1:2-14
St. Luke's Gospel 2:25-32

What is your 'take' on life?

Life is not good enough to be true.

That is, we have it within us to be far better than anything we have yet achieved.

Isn't that why Jesus grew very angry?

The piety of the Temple wasn't nearly good enough to be authentic.

The sheer hypocrisy of the Scribes and Pharisees was singularly unworthy of them.

Jesus, we may say, suffered from double vision: he saw people as they were and he saw them as they might yet be.

When Jesus wept, his tears were the tears of unwearied love, richly symbolic of a striving to reconcile the world into a harmonious whole. A righteous indignation, if you like, to make the world and the people in it, the very best they could be.

One cannot help but warm to the sentiments of a prayer from the Buddhist community: "Take me from the tumult of things into a place of peace and there show me what I am and what I might yet become."

Life is not nearly good enough to be true!

KFH

We will remember them

The hands of time may turn, the pages of history may flip,
But the saga of their courage remains unforgotten.
In the echo of gunfire, in the whisper of winds,
Their tales of valour continue to inspire.
Do you feel it in the depth of your being?
The resonance of resilience, the echoes of endurance,
Their footprints etched on the sands of time,
Remain unforgotten, forever imprinted on our minds.
